Sopra Steria announces the appointment of Cyril Malargé as Chief Executive Officer

The Group's 2021 performance targets will be comfortably achieved

Paris, 12 January 2022 at 6:30 p.m. – The Board of Directors of Sopra Steria (Euronext Paris: SOP), chaired by Pierre Pasquier, met today and decided to appoint Cyril Malargé to succeed Vincent Paris as Chief Executive Officer.

Mr. Paris wished to be relieved of his duties as CEO of Sopra Steria for personal and family reasons. The Board of Directors has appointed Mr. Malargé, who currently leads the Group's operations as Chief Operating Officer (COO), to succeed him as of 1 March 2022. Mr. Paris will continue to support the Group as Advisor to the Chairman.

Cyril Malargé, 49, holds a doctorate in science, graduating at the top of his class in 1995 from the École Spéciale de Mécanique et d'Electricité, and has had an exemplary career at the company for almost twenty years. He has been Managing Director of the France reporting unit and, for the past 18 months, has served as the Group's Chief Operating Officer. He has been a member of the Executive Committee since 2015. His appointment is in line with the strategy that has enabled Sopra Steria to stake its place as a leader in French and European tech.

Pierre Pasquier commented, "The Board of Directors and I would like to express our sincere thanks to Vincent Paris who, for more than thirty years – and in particular in his role as CEO since 2015 – has contributed to the success and transformation of our Group. Preliminary estimates of a rebound in results in 2021 confirm this. I can personally attest to his great professional and personal qualities, recognised by all. Mr. Malargé, who succeeds him, has our full confidence in continuing the development of Sopra Steria and adapting it to new challenges. With the management team supporting him, he can count on the commitment of the Board of Directors."

Vincent Paris added, "I would like to thank Pierre Pasquier sincerely for the trust and the constructive and exacting support he has always given me. I am proud to have been able to contribute in my various functions to the development of Sopra Steria, to which I remain committed. I am pleased to hand over to Cyril Malargé, whose talents I have personally appreciated for many years and who, together with the management team, will be able to take our Group to new heights."

Cyril Malargé said, "I am honoured to have been appointed as Chief Executive Officer of Sopra Steria and would like to thank Mr. Pasquier and the Board of Directors for their confidence. I would like to pay tribute to Vincent Paris for his decisive contribution to the development of the Group. With the support of the Board of Directors, the Executive Committee, all the employees and myself are fully mobilised to continue to provide the best service to our clients and pursue the Group's strategy to achieve the objectives we have set ourselves."

The detailed results for the 2021 financial year will be published as planned on 24 February 2022 and presented by Messrs. Paris, Malargé and du Vignaux, the Group's CFO. Current estimates<sup>1</sup> confirm a decisive rebound in operating performance in 2021 and the comfortable achievement of full-year targets. Organic revenue growth is estimated at between 6.3% and 6.4% (previous guidance: "greater than or equal to 6%"). The operating margin on business activity is estimated to be up by more than 1 point at 8.1% (previous guidance: "between 7.7% and 8.0%"). Cash performance is expected to be very solid, with free cash flow of more than €250m (previous guidance: "between €150m and €200m").
