

Sopra Steria positioned as “Best in Class” in the PAC INNOVATION RADAR 2023 for its sustainability-related consulting & services in Europe

Paris, February 2, 2023 – Sopra Steria, a European tech leader in consulting, digital services and software development, today announced that its sustainability-related consulting and services have been recognized as “Best in Class” in the PAC INNOVATION RADAR 2023, covering all European geographies.

The PAC RADAR is an effective tool for the holistic evaluation and visual positioning of software and ICT service providers on local markets. This INNOVATION RADAR analyzes the market of IT service providers in Europe and evaluates their approaches, offers, strategies, and references in sustainability-related consulting and services.

According to the study, Sopra Steria's capabilities are recognized as "Best in Class" and benefit from:

- The Group's strong footprint in Europe
- Its global sustainability-related consulting and IT services offering, across the entire value chain
- Its multidisciplinary skills
- Its intellectual property tools, models, and frameworks
- Its significant case studies.

“As a European tech player, it is our responsibility to contribute to a sustainable digital economy. To fulfil our commitment in reducing our environmental footprint while bringing our ecosystem together, we are developing eco-responsible digital solutions for our customers and supporting them in their projects to decarbonise their business. Our recognition in the PAC INNOVATION RADAR 2023 study demonstrates Sopra Steria's ability to anticipate and integrate the major environmental challenges that we must collectively face,” explains Fabienne Mathey-Girbig, Executive Director Corporate Responsibility at Sopra Steria.

“We are convinced that digital companies play a central role in the decarbonization of the whole economy. Therefore, our PAC INNOVATION RADAR aims to help companies, regardless of their sector, find the right IT consulting and services partner to accompany them in their sustainable transformation, both in Green IT and IT for Green dimensions. In our PAC INNOVATION RADAR, Sopra Steria is ranked as “Best in Class”. The Group is thus among the best positioned to help European companies improve their environmental impact and integrate sustainable development into their operating model,” says Dina Capelle, senior market analyst at PAC.
